

Profile of Dr. Prakash V. Shinde, MBBS, D.I.(Hom), D.Ac. (Columbo)

Shi Prem Center for excellence in Homoeopathic, at Kolhapur, Maharashtra, India.

Qualification – MBBS from Dr. Vaishampayan Memorial Medical College, Solapur (Shivaji University), Maharashtra, India 1976, D.Ac (Columbo) 1986, D.I.(Hom) London 1990.

Experience - Started his Allopathic Practice in 1976, however not satisfied in treating his chronic patients and came across a few miraculous results in his patients with his Homoeopathic colleagues. After studying Organon, Materia Medica & Repertory etc he stopped his Allopathic practice. And with the help of fresh Homoeopathic graduates started totally Homoeopathic consultation at his clinic in 1986. This way he developed a platform for students of Homoeopathy, to undergo practical experience (as an adjuvant theoretical knowledge acquired from their respective Homoeopathic college), understanding and sharing Homoeopathic knowledge amongst each other.

He is a founder of Kai SVS memorial Charitable trust, Kolhapur, the sole purpose of trust was to increase the awareness about Homoeopathy for public in general. Through the trust several free homoeopathic medical camps are conducted in Maharashtra, Konkan & near by urban & rural areas. Various slide shows and lectures are arranged at various places for the propagation of Homoeopathy.

He started his impatient department of homoeopathic under the name Shi Prem Center. Which was he felt a scarcity as well as a necessity for the down trodden health problems of humanity (Every body is coming forward for super speciality allopathic hospitals, very few think of Homoeopathic indoor facility.)

Lot many patients of Cancer & Renal failure are coming towards Shi Prem Center with a ray of hope, hence the trust established Sparsh Cancer Homoeopathic Foundations, Kolhapur and about one-thousand Cancer cases are regularly attending the out patient department.
